SOME REPUBLICAN NOMINEES

For Common Pleas Judge.

Judge Samuel E. Kramer.

Among the seven candidates for judge of the common pleas court to be voted for in November are Judge Samuel E. Kramer who ought to be and doubtless will be re-elected; and Atty. Frank G. Carpenter, who is unquestionably competent to fill the position most acceptably. Both gentlemen are well-known to and friendly toward our people.

For State Senator.

DAVID COPLAND

When we predicted the triumphant nomination of David Copland, just prior to the recent primaries, largely because he had been the "runner-up," two years ago, we thot and felt sure we were right. Subsequent events proved the correctness of that thot. Mr. Copland's fine showing at the primaries, however, was in no small measure the result of the very active and telling assistance of his nephews, the Lurie brothers of The May Company.

Rosenwald's Latest Gift.

Southern Afro-Americans are again indebted to Julius Rosenwald, the philanthropist, who has helped them build 5,000 schools. Recently, he gave $15,000 for a summer school for southern Afro-American farm and home demonstration agents under the direction of the extension bureau of the Department of Agriculture. These extension schools were held, this month, at State A. & M. College, Orangeburg, S. C., Tennessee State College, Nashville, and Prairie View, Texas, College. They are the first of their kind ever held for Afro-American agents and fill a long felt need.

IT IS THE MOST STARTLING FACT

In the Recent History of the Race, According to Our Good Friend, Bishop W. P. Thirkield of the Great M. E. Church.

Marshfield, Mass., Aug. 23, '30.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor Gazette, Cleveland, O.

My dear Mr. Smith: — Let me thank you for the effective work which you have accomplished in securing legislation against lynching and mob violence. You have accomplished a strong and progressive piece of work, which is worthy of all praise. I pray that my dear old native state of Ohio may live up to these laws. (It does.—Editor.)

As you know, since 1883 I have identified my life in large measure with the Negro group, being especially interested in a trained and consecrated ministry. The enclosed article gives my view as to the seriousness of the present situation.

With all good wishes, I am
Faithfully yours,
(Rt. Rev.) W. P. Thirkield, of The Methodist Episcopal Church.

A Critical Situation.

(Contributed Editorial by Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield.)

The most startling fact in the recent history of the Negro race is the enrollment of nineteen thousand students in the colleges and universities of our land. In the institutions of the Methodist Episcopal Church alone the students of collegiate rank have advanced from 384 in 1920 to 2,295 in 1929. Besides, there are tens of thousands of students in the high schools for this group. While in Georgia and the South, when I entered on my life-work in 1883, there was not a single high school for the Negro, there are now well-equipped high schools in every State. In all the colleges there were then not 200 enrolled. In the first graduating class of Gammon Theological Seminary, in 1886, there was but one college graduate, James M. Cox, who went forth to really create Philander Smith College, at Little Rock, thru forty years of consecrated service. Even in Little Rock, Arkansas, there was recently dedicated a noble high-school building costing over $400,000.

No such advance in the same time has been made by any other people. An entire race has moved forward and upward by phenomenal strides. To the Church, however, it spells not only encouragement and hope but peril. Let us consider the critical situation in the ministry of the Negro group arising from this amazing advance. It is evident to careful students of the situation that the ministry of the race is not keeping pace with the intellectual, social and spiritual advance in the membership. Where it should lead as it once did, it now lags. The problem now is, with a ministry so largely unequipped, to hold the new generation of trained, alert, capable young people to the Church.—The Christian Advocate, N. Y. City, Aug. 7, '30.

SEEDS OF ANARCHY.

Editor, Cleveland News: — It is maintained by some that inasmuch as justice is not exercised in our courts, the mob is justified in taking the law into its hands and meting out in its own way what it feels might not otherwise be done. This idea is as false as it is pernicious. And more so when it is motivated by race prejudice. In this age of boasted enlightenment and progress, it is amazing to witness the latest savage outburst in the town of Marion, Ind. Two Negroes, after murdering her escort, attempted to assault a young woman. They were duly arrested and jailed. While awaiting trial an infuriated mob broke open the jail took them from their cells, dragged them through the streets and finally hanged them.

Trial by jury is an inheritance from western civilization and is the line of demarcation from barbarism. That courts do not function as required by statute is not the question here, although the discussion of whether lynchings are justified naturally leads to this point. If a man takes a life he thereby forfeits his own. But in all countries in which capital punishment is the penalty, it is first ascertained whether the facts warrant such action by the state.

The Indiana mob did not give those two Negroes a chance to obtain their constitutional rights. It may be argued they would have died anyhow, but that is not the point. Nor have the courts been frightened into activity. For it should be remembered that an attack upon law and order does not hasten court reform, but does more firmly implant and spread in our soil the seeds of anarchy.

"PASTOR FOOLED US"

Say Twenty-nine Members of Shiloh Baptist Church, Columbus, About to Lose Their Homes.

Columbus, O.—Twenty-nine members of Shiloh Baptist church, whose homes are threatened by a foreclosure which will follow a suit filed by the Bellefontaine Building and Loan Co. which holds a mortgage on the church property, have engaged Atty. Leon Ransom and others to help them. They claim that their names were obtained on the note thru misrepresentation, that the pastor, Rev. J. H. Burks, came to them and said that he was getting up a list of his most prominent members "to present down town so that people there would know that he had a substantial membership." They did not know, they say, that they had attached their names to a promissory note until several weeks ago when a committee of trustees went into conference with the Bellefontaine Loan Co. officials. They were shown the note with their names written on the back. A few weeks later, the Bellefontaine company foreclosed.

DOINGS OF THE RACE.

Among the 12 million Afro-Americans, there are about 40,000 church organizations.—Bishop W. P. Thirkield.

Thirty Afro-American Democrats from Chicago alone attended the Illinois State Democratic convention, last week.

Our publications ought to have too much pride as well as regard for their own business interests to circulate the W. B. Ziff Co. "Illustrated Feature Section." "Ditch" it, brethren.

Atty. William Bush of Cincinnati is our only other Ohio candidate for state representative. Like Cleveland's candidate, the Hon. Perry B. Jackson, he is on the Republican ticket.

John H. Mosely of Washington, D. C., last week, knocked down and killed Lester Gordon (white), age 33, after he had several times ordered the latter to stay away from his home.

Barred from one of its vessels at Detroit when they had tickets for an excursion during the meeting of the National Association of Chiropodists, twelve of our doctors have filed damage suits totaling $300,000 against the Detroit-Windsor Ferry Co.

The failure of President Hoover to recall the nomination of a prejudiced southerner, Dr. Carl Colvin (white) as chief of the technical bureau of the Department of Agriculture of Haiti, caused the resignation of the entire Haitian cabinet, recently.

Alleging serious irregularities in the handling of over $22,000 of Campbell college funds, Bishop William D. Johnson, of the eighth episcopal district, A. M. E. Church, was made a defendant by a suit in equity in the circuit court at Jackson, Miss., recently.

With the arrest and punishment of one M. Brown, American machinist (white), charged with taking part in throwing a worker out of a Stalingrad tractor factory dining hall because he was a Negro, Soviet Russia acted with determination to halt any show of racial prejudice there (in Moscow, Russia), last week.

President Hoover who has named a white ambassador to Haiti and a white charge d'affaires to Liberia, Africa, has also named an all-white delegation to attend the coronation of Ras Tafari, emperor of Abyssinia, on Oct. 2. The new ambassador is Herman M. Jacoby, age 38, a banker, who became a naturalized American only ten years ago.

Here are Some Jobs!

Ten government positions, obtainable by competitive examination, were announced, Saturday, by C. F. Mackin, secretary of the U. S. civil service commission. The positions of architects, police, biologist, physiologist and agronomist are included in the list. Salaries range from $1,900 to $4,400 per year.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 30, 1930.

The outlook for the Republican success, this fall, is not good. This is an "off year" to begin with, and between President Hoover's Parker appointment, the new tariff law, the president's anti-soldier-bonus stand and the blame for the distressing economic situation thruout the country, we are sure up against it. Then, too, the Democrats have the best state and local ticket they have had in years, while McCulloch, Cooper and several of our local candidates are on the defensive, being fought by organized labor, Afro-Americans and others.

Councilman Herman Finkle informs The Gazette that the rerouting of the Central Ave. cars, reversing them on the down-town loop and making them far more useful to passengers in all parts of the city, who wish to patronize the Central Market, will be an accomplished fact on Monday next, Sept. 1, '30. This will be real good news to many of our people of the third and fourth councilmanic districts. The suggestion that this change be made was published originally in The Gazette, last May, and included in a letter under date, June 5, '30, sent by the editor to C. M. Ballou, city street railroad commissioner, to which he replied very favorably, June 20, 1930. The rerouting is also being made ni response to a resolution introduced in city council, several weeks ago, by Councilman L. N. Bundy.

ANOTHER "BUNDY" FIASCO.

From all accounts "the Councilman Bundy victory dinner-dance" so noisily proclaimed in the vicinity of Central Ave. and E. 55th St., for Monday evening, in Elks' hall, at one dollar per, was a flat failure. Dollars are not numerous, these days, among the boys in the vicinity of the Hotel Majestic and the 17th ward, as well as thruout the city. Along about midnight when it was perfectly clear that the affair was to be a flat failure in point of attendance, the doors were thrown wide open and everybody invited to come in gratis, it is said. Still the attendance was pitifully small. Even his few friends are beginning to sense the fact that the erratic "bobblegush" and "Blossom Triplet" Bundy has sure pulled a "big boner" in opposing the Republican organization which did so much, last fall, to help elect him a member of the city council.

A great many people do not yet know that Atty. George B. Harris' majority over Atty. Arthur H. Day in the "colored" wards was 948 in ward 11; 1661 in ward 12, and 152 in ward 19. While Day's majority over Harris in ward 17 was only 325. This (ward 17) is the erratic "bobblegush", Bundy's habitat, too. And only 346 in ward 18, Councilman Clayborne George's ward. George, if you will recall, was supposedly for Harris, which apparently didn't seem to mean much to the majority of Republican voters in that ward.

AN APPRECIATION.

It was very thotful of Secretary Chas. S. Smith, of the city department of public safety, to call our attention to the cartoon, "Progress of Civilization," on the first page of this paper, and very kind indeed of the editors of The Lakewood (O.) Post, in which it appeared last week, to aid us so materially in securing the same. While we are expressing our appreciation, we must not forget another old subscriber of The Gazette who never fails to call our attention to things of exceptional interest and value to our readers, and that is Mrs. Ida B. Wells of Los Angeles, Cal., a former resident of Cleveland, and another long-time reader of "The Old Reliable" Gazette. It was Mrs. Wells who called our attention to and made it possible for us to secure the cut of J. H. Montgomery's bird-like plane, used in our issue of July 26, '30, and the cut of the inventor to be used in an early issue of this paper. The past week we received from her a program of the Alhambra theater, N. Y. City, which announced a "welcome home," Aug. 4, '30, to "Manda Randolph," a Cleveland girl, "from her triumphant six months' tour of Europe." The program named Miss Randolph, "Harlem's most beloved entertainer." Mrs. Wells also kindly sent us a souvenir program containing a splendid portrait of our great chorus of one thousand voices that sang beautifully "spirituals under the stars" in Hollywood bowl, Monday evening, Aug. 4, '30, which a tremendous crowd of thousands listened to most attentively and applauded very generously indeed.

The Keed's 114 Suits.

Orangeburg, N. Y.—Kid Chocolate, who trained here for his recent bout with Jackie (Kid) Berg, is first a showman and then a good fighter. He likes nothing better than to put on his gayest raiment and stroll down Broadway handing the populace an eyeful. He has 114 suits, almost as many pairs of shoes, and it is utterly impossible to calculate the number of neckties.

Godfrey Drops DeKuh 8 Times.

Big George Godfrey, heavyweight de luxe, did the expected, Tuesday night, at Taylor bowl before 2500 fight fans. He knocked Arthur DeKuh, big heavyweight Italian, to the floor five times in the third, and twice (before the finisher) in the fourth, of their scheduled ten-round bout. George, who weighed 255 pounds, "played with" Arthur, the first two rounds. The latter weighed 218 pounds. DeKuh was so greatly outclassed that the fight was tame.

Tolan Defeats Simpson, Again.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Eddie Tolan, sprint-star of the University of Michigan, again beat out his old rival, George Simpson, of Ohio State university, to win the 100-yard dash final in a stirring finish at the National Amateur Athletic union championship here, last Saturday afternoon. Tolan, holder of world's record of 9.5 seconds, was clocked at 9.7 seconds on the track somewhat damp from recent rains. He flashed into the tape a couple of feet ahead of Simpson after collaring him at the 50-yard mark. Simpson was ahead of Russell Sweet of the San Francisco Olympic club, who was third with Cy Leland of Texas Christian university, fourth. Simpson won the 220-yard dash in 21:3.

Thompson vs. Freeman.

Detroit, Mich.—Inasmuch as Young Jack Thompson of Los Angeles, welterweight champion of the world, when he won the title from Fields, fought the fight of his life, he is retracing the movements he made before the Fields fight. He came here shortly after the Freeman match was signed in Cleveland, recently; employed the same sparring partners that he used in training for Fields, trained at the same gym and adopted the same training routine. Tommy McGinty of Cleveland, promoter of this title fight, which is to take place in that city, next week Friday night, at League park, on Tuesday posted $3,350 with the Cleveland boxing commission as bond for the preliminary bouts. He was told by Chairman Edwin D. Barry that the principals would weigh in at 1 o'clock the afternoon of Sept. 5 and if either scaled over the 147-pound limit, there would absolutely be no fight.

Again Gans Triumphs.

Detroit, Mich.—Baby Joe Gans of Los Angeles, welterweight extraordinary, won a decision over Joe Ruguzzoni (Italian) of this city in a ten-round bout here, Tuesday night.

Gans had Ruguzzoni on the canvas four times. Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion of the world, promoted the bout. Gans weighed 140¾, Ruguzzoni 140½.

CONCERT FIT FOR EMPEROR.

Paris, France.—Wednesday, at the Hotel Imperator, the assembled colored talent of Paris gave Afro-American Gold Star Mothers a concert that was fit for an emperor and his court. There were Noble Sissle and his band from the Ambassadors, the Two Black Dots, Sam Wooding and his band from the Olympia, Cricket Smith and his entertainers from Zelli's, Norman Thomas and his quintette from the Empire, Nelson Kinkaid and his band, the Versatile Four, Bricktop and her entertainers, and other entertainers from leading theatres and night-clubs as Vance Lowry, Elizabeth Welsh, Miss Cortez, Lewis Coles, Mabel Fisher, Mabel Mercer, Thady Drayton, Noma Davis, Gene Bullard, Marino and Norris and Herbert Parker. An assemblage of such stars would have cost a small fortune, and it was all free, with the artists getting as much real pleasure out of it as the mothers and the guests which included U. S. Ambassador Edge, Gen. John J. Pershing, Col. and Mrs. Ellis, Col. Benj. O. and Mrs. Davis and son, and several others who are here visiting.

OHIO'S MOB VIOLENCE ACT

OR ANTI-LYNCHING LAW LEADS THE COUNTRY IN EFFECTIVE LEGISLATION

Against the Mob and Lynch-Murder—Three Years' Work of a Member of the Race—Also His Ohio Civil Rights Law.

Our mob-violence or anti-lynching bill was introduced in the Ohio legislature in 1894 and re-introduced in 1896. It took the Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor of The Gazette, just three years to secure its enactment into law. The Ohio Supreme Court has several times upheld the constitutionality of the law and it has been very effective. Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have followed Ohio's lead and enacted mob violence or anti-lynching laws which are copies of our Ohio law. Several other northern states and at least one border state (Kentucky) have also enacted anti-lynching laws, in recent years, like Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The Ohio law follows:

MOBS.

Section
6278. "Mob" and "lynching" defined.
6279. "Serious injury" defined.
6280. Damages in case of assault.
6281. Damages in case of lynching.
6282. Damages recoverable by legal representative of victim of lynching
6283. Person suffering death or injury by mob trying to lynch another.
6284. Limitations of action.
6285. Order to include recovery and costs in tax levy.
6286. Guardian's custody, etc., fees.
6287. County's right of action against member of mob
6288. County's right of action against another county.
6289. Non-relief from prosecution.

Section 6278. A collection of people assembled for an unlawful purpose and intending to do damage or injury to any one, or pretending to exercise correctional power over other persons by violence and without authority of law, shall be deemed a "mob" for the purpose of this chapter. An act of violence by a mob upon the body of any person shall constitute a "lynching" within the meaning of this chapter. (93 v. 161 2.)

Section 6279. The term "serious injury," for the purpose of this chapter, shall include such inquiry as permanently or temporarily disables the person receiving it from earning a livelihood by manual labor. (93 v. 161 3.)

Section 6280. A person taken from officers of justice by a mob, and assaulted with whips, clubs, missiles or in any other manner, may recover, as hereafter provided, a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars as damages from the county in which the assault is made. (93 v. 161 4.)

Section 6281. A person assaulted and lynched by a mob may recover, from the county in which such assault is made a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars; or, if the injury received therefrom is serious, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars; or, if such injury result in permanent disability, to earn a livelihood by manual labor, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars. (93 v. 12 5.)

Section 6282. The legal representative of a person dying from injuries received from lynching by a mob, may recover of the county in which such injury occurred, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars damages for such unlawful killing. Such sum shall be applied to the maintenance of the family and education of the minor children of such person so lynched, if any survive him, until such children are of legal age, and then be distributed to the survivors, share and share alike, the widow receiving an amount equal to a child's share. If there be no widow or minor children surviving such decedent, such sum shall be distributed among the next of kin according to the laws of the distribution of the personality of an intestate. Such sum so recovered shall not be a part of the estate of such person so lynched, nor be subject to any of his liabilities. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6283. A person suffering death or injury from a mob attempting to lynch another person shall come within the provisions of this chapter. He or his legal representatives shall have a like right of action as one purposely injured or killed by such a mob. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6284. Action for the recoveries provided for in this chapter must be commenced, within two years from the date of such lynching, in any court having original jurisdiction of an action for damages for malicious assault. (93 v. 162 7.)

Section 6285. An order to the commissioners of a county, against which such recovery is had, to include it with the costs of action, in the next succeeding tax levy for such county, shall be a part of the judgment in every such case. (93 v. 162 8.)

Section 6286. If the decedent so lynched has minor children surviving him, the fund shall be turned over to a regularly appointed guardian. Such guardian shall administer such fund under the direction of the probate judge, allowing not more than five hundred dollars for counsel fees in the action for such recovery. (93 v. 162 9.)

Section 6287. The county, in which a lynching occurs, may recover the amount of a judgment and costs against it in favor of the legal representatives of a person killed or seriously injured by a mob from any of the persons composing such mob. A person present, with hostile intent, at such lynching shall be deemed a member of the mob and be liable to such action. (93 v. 162 10.)

Section 6288. If a mob carries a prisoner into another county, or comes from another county to commit violence on a prisoner brought from such county for safekeeping, the county in which the lynching is committed may recover the amount of the judgment and costs from the county from which the mob came, unless there was contributory negligence on the part of officials of such county in failing to protect such prisoner or dispurse such mob. (93 v. 163 11.)

Section 6289. This chapter shall not relieve a person concerned in such lynching from prosecution for homicide or assault for engaging therein. (93 v. 163 12.)

OUR OHIO CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

Upon the request of many readers of The Gazette we print below the text of the Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Civil Rights law which the editor had enacted while a member of the 71st General Assembly, in 1894:

The General Code of Ohio:

Sec. 12940. Whoever, being the proprietor or his employee, keeper or manager of an inn, restaurant, eating house, barber-shop, public conveyance by land or water, theater or other place of public accommodation and amusement, denies to a citizen, except for reasons applicable alike to all citizens and regardless of race or color, the full enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both.

Sec. 12941. Whoever violates the next preceding section shall also pay not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundreds dollars to the person aggrieved thereby to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where such offense was committed.

This law nas repeatedly been held constitutional and good law by the Ohio Supreme court. The trouble is our people will not use it as often as they should, but expect it to do for them what they should and must do for themselves, under it, in the courts.

The city civil service commission announces examinations, the last of this month and next month, for asphalt construction foreman, carpenter foreman (bridges), furnace repair-man, tax duplicate writer, junior typist, garbage reduction and perculator operators, carpenter, superintendent of garbage collection and many other good positions. The schedule of these examinations can be secured at the office of the City

The Forest City Benefit association, an organization of employees of the garbage plant, held its annual picnic, Saturday, at the Wakeman Country club. A number of local candidates attended and there were a number of others on the program of exercises which proved very interesting. A splendid dinner was served after which dancing was also enjoyed. The inclement weather made it impossible for the editor of The Gazette to attend as anticipated. There were between seven hundred and one thousand people in attendance.

Credit is also due his widowed mother for having guided him so successfully ever since his 15th year. Master Walker is an excellent example of sterling youth other boys of our group should emulate.

Among the callers at The Gazette office, Tuesday afternoon, was Naomi L. Fears, E. 132d St., a student of the school for nurses at Harlem hospital, N. Y. City. Miss Fears was one of our young ladies, several of whom had served as stenographers in The Gazette office, who were refused admission to the nurses' training school at the local City hospital by former City Manager Wm. R. Hopkins and Welfare Director Dudley S. Blossom. Miss Fears has only one year more to serve in order to complete her course, when she intends to return to Cleveland.

One man was arrested and a score of guests questioned when a police squad, at dawn Tuesday, raided the Majestic hotel, where Councilman Bundy lives, scene of two recent police raids. The squad, under Lieut. John Zeman and Detective Serg't. Emil Smetana, was trapped between the second and third floors in an elevator when some one shut off all the electric current in the hotel. They crawled out on the third floor, the cab having stopped some six feet short of that level. The man arrested was discharged in police court, last month, because police had no search warrant when they arrested him. This time the raiders carried the warrant. The same squad picked up six men and a woman on the streets, alleged to be selling policy chances. A squad under Serg't. Yaro Vadraska arrested two men at E. 101st St. and Cedar Ave. for the same offense. Central police station held eight other men and two women, Tuesday, arrested within 24 hours, in Acting Police Chief Matowitz's drive on racketeers and undesirables. Only one man was in his "blue book" of suspected racketeers.

During the recent primary campaign the local daily papers, particularly the Democratic Plain Dealer and The Press, did everything in their power to throw a "monkey-wrench" into the George B. Harris political machinery of the local Republican organization. The object of the two Democratic papers was clearly to cause all the trouble possible among the Republicans of the county and thus help to re-elect Ray T. Miller, the Democratic County Prosecutor. No sooner had primary day passed than both of them came out in long editorials "roasting" Atty. Arthur H. Day whom they had helped to win the nomination. That disclosed the fact that they figured that Atty. Arthur H. Day, as the Republican candidate for County Prosecutor, would be easier to beat on election day than Atty. Geo. B. Harris who had the support of the local Republican organization, the Cleveland Bar association, the Citizens' league and others. Now, the thing for the Republicans of this county to do is to "turn the tables" on them, and the Democrats of the County, by electing Day. It would be a very proper return for the politically piratical course The Plain Dealer and The Press pursued in the primary campaign. The News' support of the entire Republican ticket may make some amends for that paper. But its course during the primary campaign cannot readily be forgotten, even if forgiven.

HEAR! HEAR!!

The ROUNDER

WHAT'S DOING!

The fact that a part of the ceiling of Lakeside hospital collapsed, Sunday, will not affect Welfare Director Dudley Blossom's plan to rent part of the building for use as a city emergency hospital, he said, Monday evening. The building will be vacated by Jan. 1 at the latest, the hospital moving to new quarters at Western Reserve Medical Center. The old Lakeside hospital buildings are those they want to "load on the city" for "jim-crow" hospital purposes; so "Dud" don't care how many ceilings fall, it seems.

The receipt of a letter from Samuel V. Perry thanking The Gazette for "so loyally aiding in the nomination of the Hon. Perry B. Jackson, our candidate for state representative," on the Republican ticket, this fall, reminds us that Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker, chairman of "The Jackson for State Representative Committee" ought to relieve Mr. Jackson of his present embarrassment by resigning from office in the committee. Then it would again be possible for the chairman of the committee to sign or have his or her name signed to all of its communications and not make it necessary for Samuel V. Perry, "director" of the committee, to do so in part or in whole. Hazel's present political course is at variance with that of the Republican organization and Perry is one of its endorsed candidates. Indeed, he would not have been renominated but for the loyal support of the organization and all of our people. Hazel is most too bright a woman to fail to see the wisdom of "The Rounder's" suggestion and to fail to act upon it.

Last year one of the most enjoyable social events of the fall season was the clam-bake and picnic in Mt. Pleasant. It was so successful an affair, especially the clam bake, that its memory still lingers vividly in the minds of those who were fortunate enough to participate, the "Rounder" being one of them; also Dr. Edward A. Bailey who so kindly drove us in his fine auto to the Mt. Pleasant function. This year, it is all to be repeated on Labor day, Monday, at Vass Park, stop 24½, Kinsman Rd., under the auspices of the Kinsman Heights Men's club. Speaking, dancing, bowling and music by King Tutt's Elk orchestra will be other features of the holiday function. The park's playground is fully equipped for children. Additional information can be secured by calling WAshington 4374. Autoists should follow the arrow to the park.

And Why — The Race's Greatest Weakness — A Couple of "Hot Ones Right Off the Griddle."

Anent the passing of Ed. Wright, a leading legal luminary of Chicago, a man whose brain more than overbalanced any prejudice that the dense darkness of his color would engender, a young stenographer alluded to the fact that he left the young lady in charge of his office $10,000, and said, "Would that more men were equally considerate towards those who work for them." We replied, "Possibly they would be if their workers were more dutiful. Unfortunately, most of them, if not watching the clock or sweetly dreaming of their affinities, are generally engaged in magnifying their own abilities, minimizing their employers', and fondly calculating how long the business would last should they leave. Ed. Wright's beneficiary belonged to a differtnt class. With her, his interests came first, and so 'when the bell tolled,' the whole world knew that he appreciated her services."

"What's the greatest weakness of our race?" Its multitude of would-be leaders. They seek to lead before learning to follow. They seek to teach before having acquired knowledge. They predict future events before attaining even the rudiments of historical knowledge. "The blind seek to lead the blind." The masses are most disposed to follow the man possessing the largest number of assinine attributes—in plain English, the biggest packass. A loud voice, bombastic manner, oracular observations. Such personality, added to a talbespoolful of brains, ever bespeaks a big following.—Editor W. P. Dabney in Cincinnati (O.) Union.

HUNT FELICITATES "THE OLD RELIABLE."

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 26, '30.
Hon. Harry C. Smith,
Editor Gazette, Cleveland, O.

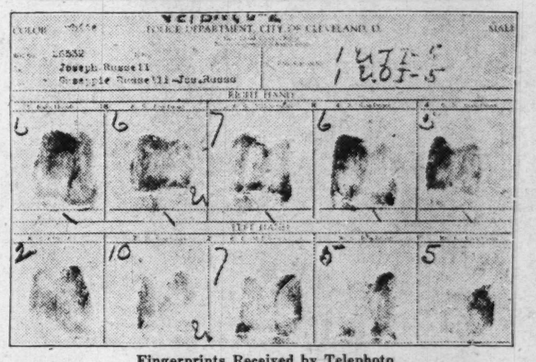
My dear Friend Harry:—I want to thank you for publishing the article from "The Union," and the congratulations following, coming from you. And I thank you again because a word, to my mind, spoken to spread cheer while we are alive and can hear it, is far better than a lot of flowers after we have passed and can't smell.

I want to congratulate you and your splendid paper, "The Old Reliable" Gazette, on your forty-seven years. I know it has not all been sunshine but you had the courage of your convictions and now you are reaping your reward. My prayer is that the Lord will spare you to round out 50 years (or more) in 1933. I want to come to Cleveland and help stage a big celebration in your behalf. May God be with you till we meet, next month.

Your old friend,
Charlie (C. E. A. Hunt).

Telephoto Is Swift Agency of Justice



Fingerprints Received by Telephoto

DEVELOPMENTS in modern communication are stacking the cards against criminals who gamble with time and distance to escape the law.

With the development of the telephotograph process by engineers of the Bell Telephone System, police officials have at their disposal a means of flashing photographs, specimens of hand-writing and fingerprints from one city to another at lightning speed.

Fugitives from justice, who formerly escaped when several hours and a few miles separated them from their crimes, now may be identified in a distinct city within a few minutes through the use of telephotographs.

Eight key cities from coast to coast are equipped with telephotograph facilities, the Ohio division being located in The Ohio Bell Telephone Company building at Cleveland. Telephotographs may be transmitted or received at any one of these points. The print to be transmitted is placed on the wires of the Bell system through telephotograph apparatus and travels to the receiving equipment in another city at the same rapidity that the voice speeds over the wires.

The above fingerprint identification card was sent by telephotograph to Boston, Chicago, New York and St. Louis by the Cleveland Police Department in connection with the search for a criminal who afterwards was captured and convicted.

ELECTION FRAUDS IN GEORGE'S WARD?

Six election officials of Precinct J, ward 18, were discharged, Aug. 13, the morning following the recent primaries because they took until 2:30 A. M. that morning to complete their tally of ballots and then took five hours to go from the booth to the city hall during which time police conducted an unsuccessful search for them. Louis Simon, clerk of the board of elections, announced the foregoing, last week, and that he would recommend that the board also discharge the six officials of Precinct L, ward 18, whom he called to the office, last week, and severely reprimanded for their conduct in tabulating the primary returns. Elizabeth Robinson, presiding judge of the precinct, and David Quinn, one of the witnesses, were rivals for the office of Republican precinct committeeman, and on the first count, Miss Robinson appeared to be the winner. On a second count, however, Quinn's total exceeded hers. A dispute arose and, rather than try to settle it themselves, the workers left the matter for the board of elections to decide and made no entry on the tally sheets for the committeeman contest. Instead of placing the ballots in the envelope reserved for disputed ballots, however, they placed them in the sealed bag which the election board is not permitted to open. Councilman Clayborne George is a resident of ward 18, and a number of the officials referred to are members of the race.

LACE USED IN A TRIMMING WAY IS NOTABLE FASHION FEATURE

IN LACE used in a trimming way designers are finding a most intriguing proposition. Not just a casual thought, a passing fancy, is this lace trimming note. Rather is it being made one of the outstanding features in dress design. With the vogue for lace used with fabric at its beginning, the prospects are that "the best is yet to be" when fall and winter fashions get into full swing.

The picture presents a very lovely printed chiffon frock, its brilliant flower colorings contrasted by insets of exquisitely sheer black chantilly lace. This gown has one of the new skirts with an extremely wide hemline which is fitted snugly at the hips with stitched down pleats. The latest theory among fashionists is that no matter how full a skirt be at the hemline it must contrive in some way or another to be tight fitting at the hipline.

Evidences of a profuse use of lace made up with fabric are given in advance styles recently displayed. One very gracious gown combines black transparent velvet with black lace, using the latter for yoke, sleeves and a deep flounce on the skirt. To say that this alliance of lace and velvet is effective but mildly expresses it.

Not only is all-black lace used on black, but ecru tones are sponsored. The newest sleeves in afternoon silk frocks are of lace from the elbow down. Dresses of this fabric or that will, this fall, be lavishly detailed with lace gilets, deep revers, yokes, insets and all sorts of lacy fantasies.

That charming custom of trimming with yards and yards of lace edging sewed row and row has been revived. Young girls are wearing winsome, quaint frocks this midsummer of organdie, net or batiste, not forgetting chiffon, the full skirts of which are adorned with one row after another of val edging arranged in graduated groups, the lace edgings bordering the neckline and finishing the sleeves.

THE NEW SILHOUETTE FROM HAT TO GLOVES AND FROCK IS QUAINT

HERE we have the picture of a perfect summer afternoon costume—that is as Parisiennes see it. The explanation is that it's smart to be quaint.

When it comes to dressy dress as distinguished from sports costumes, all fashionable Paris has gone quaint and we are getting that way over here in America, too—wearing big bonnet-shaped hats and long black suede gloves and shoulder-cape effects and fichu-like collars and long skirts and short bodices with ribbon tied about the waistline. The picture tells it better than words, for each of these details is featured in this ensemble.

As to the skirt of this white-and-black crepe model, which, by the way, is a Jenny creation, the matter of it's snug-fitting hipline is highly significant. A close observation will reveal the fact that the very latest dresses make a point of a molded-to-the-figure silhouette when it comes to the tops of their skirts with hemlines accenting a super fullness. This is accomplished by means of yokes, of stitched-down pleats, godets set in below the hipline and innumerable other devices.

The idea of wearing gloves, not the time-honored buttoned types, but soft nonchalant wrinkled-at-the-wrist pull-ons, is taking a definite stand in the world of fashion. To be ungloved is to ignore an important style mandate. So gloves it is, whether sleeves be short or long or minus. As to the washable cotton slip-on gloves in pastel tints to wear with summer frocks, counters where they are sold are being besieged by smart young things who delight in engaging in all the latest style "stunts."

As to the matter of black-and-white or white-and-black, Paris is loath to depart from it. Leading French couturiers continue to exploit the combination with sustained enthusiasm. Among the black-and-white modes are such interesting expressions as half-in-half frocks, that is, the yoke, sleeves and lower portions of the dress is of white chiffon, the rest of the gown being of black chiffon.

Especially in "first" hats for mid-season and early fall is emphasis placed on black with white.

ESTIMATING COST OF CAR FOR HOME

Where Records Are Kept Real Running Cost of Machine Easily Found.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Many men who do not see the advantage of other home accounts like to keep records on the cost of owning and operating their automobiles. Perhaps this is because the man of the house has more to do with the car than with other family commodities. The bureau of home economics of the United States Department of Agriculture has provided a special page for the automobile in the household account book it has designed. In the directions for keeping home accounts, the person who writes the record, whether husband or wife, is reminded of the various items which should not be overlooked in connection with owning and running the car.

Makeup of Complete Picture.

A complete picture includes not only expenditures for gas, oil, repairs, tires and other replacements, fire, theft and liability insurance, tax, license plates, care such as washing and greasing, and garage if one is rented; but also annual depreciation as shown by comparing the turn-in at the end of the year with the buying price or list value at the beginning of the year. Cars depreciate both from use or wearing of parts, and from obsolescence or style changes, even when used very little. The turn-in value of a used car often bears little relation to its mileage or the care given it. Interest paid on installment notes and loss of interest on capital invested would also be added in an exact computation.

The real running cost per mile is easily found by dividing the year's total cost for all these items by the year's total mileage. Some people reckon their cost per mile only in terms of gas, oil, and repairs or replacements.

As the running cost of a car will differ but little whether one person or five ride in it, it is obviously economical for a family to use this means of transportation, especially for long or roundabout trips. It may also happen that for the sake of companionship on such trips, an automobile owner will offer to take friends with him. This is a very delightful form of hospitality which most drivers enjoy. Another plan is for four or five friends to divide among themselves the cost of a long journey. But in this case it happens quite commonly that an unintentional injustice is done the owner of the car in estimating what this cost is. The real running cost includes "overhead" as well as cash expended en route.

Running Cost Per Mile.

To illustrate: Assuming that Mr. A owns an average medium-priced car, its running cost per mile, including everything, would probably range between 6½ and 7 cents. The United States government reimburses its employees using their own cars on government business on a basis of 7 cents per mile. Mr. A and four friends, taking a 500-mile trip on an expense-sharing basis should estimate the total cost at $35, although less than $10 may be spent for gas and oil en route. A moment's thought should convince the fair-minded that either before or after such a trip the car would require putting into good condition; following it, washing and greasing would undoubtedly be required, the tires would be more worn even if not immediately replaced, and other expenses due to conditions of the trip might appear. While depreciation may be partly a matter of time as well as of mileage, these other costs are inescapable for the owner. The fact that his friends have had pleasure, comfort, convenience, and, after all, cheap transportation in the car, should lead to a generous point of view on their part in sharing the cost of the ride.

THE MOTOR QUIZ

(How Many Can You Answer?)

Q. When was the first oil well drilled?

Ans. Seventy years ago at Titusville, Pa. The start of the great industry was made when a well with a daily flow of 1,000 gallons was brought in.

Q. What should be done when a car is hard to start?

Ans. Have battery tested, make sure connections are clean and tight, check the spark plugs and breaker points for proper adjustment, and examine the choke.

Q. How many cars and trucks were produced in the United States and Canada in 1929?

Ans. Five million six hundred and 51 thousand, an increase of about 22 per cent over the previous year. Production included 4,846,000 cars and 805,000 trucks.

Q. How much gasoline are American motorists estimated to have used in 1929?

Ans. Approximately fourteen billion gallons. This would make a lake five miles in diameter and four miles deep.

Taking Time Exposures on Automobile Fender

Taking time exposures on the road requires a level support, which is usually not found on an auto. It is an easy matter to provide one, however. Take a tin saucer, cover it with heavy cloth and tack it to a small square piece of wood, preferably plywood. The inverted saucer is set snugly on the fender so that the board on which the camera is set is level. This enables the tourist to take a picture in any direction with no trouble and a minimum loss of time.—Harold E. Benson, Denver, Colo., in Popular Mechanics Magazine.

POLITICS

Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker, who was dropped from the Republican executive committee—she was succeeded by Jane Hunter—today declared:

"Being on the executive committee doesn't mean a thing. All you do is say yes to everything that's said."

Both Mrs. Walker and Norman McGhee expressed displeasure at the selection of George as ward leader. Both predicted George wouldn't hold the job for more than his present term. During the past campaign, George did not join with them in their anti-Maschke revolt in the colored wards which Bundy led.—The Cleveland News, Aug. 18, '30.

"Sistah" Walker seemed mighty sore over being dropped from the local County Republican Executive committee. What The News quotes her as saying reminds us of the old expression "sour grapes." "She suah was making a face" when she said what she is quoted as saying, and yet she was only getting what she earned, deserved from the local Republican organization which had been good, too good to her for some years. Wonder if Councilman George had anything to do with McGhee's recent loss of the investigator job? "The Rounder" knows that he was sore with Councilman George because of the latter's support of Skinkle (white), 18th ward leader until Saturday when Skinkle turned the leadership over to George. Councilman George's and Payne's belated refusal to be longer blindly led by the erratic "bobblegush" Bundy, when they left the Day candidacy and went to the support of George B. Harris for the Republican nomination for county prosecutor, was the first open "break of 'The Blossom Triplets.'". George's and Payne's political future is dependent largely upon their maintenance of that independency.

At the political meeting held in St. James A. M. E. church, Thursday evening, Aug. 7, Ralph Donaldson, local political writer for The Cleveland Plain Dealer, said Bundy dared Maurice Maschke to try to "dethrone" him politically, saying:

"I am a member of the Republican party. We make the bosses. And if we make them we can unmake them. I haven't any fight on with any bosses, and they'd better not make any fight on me."

Wonder what Bundy meant when he used the words "dethrone" and "we"? The people of the third councilmanic district will do the "dethroning," next year in the fall time. And if it is the people he classes himself with, when he uses the word "we," he sure is talking as silly as when he uses the word "dethrone." The "bobblegush", who sits only on a "throne" of his own words, has sure been riding to an awful fall almost since the day he entered the City Council as a member. There can be no doubt of this now. Then, too, his associating himself with the people, in the use of the word "we," is one huge joke because they are only waiting for next year, in the fall time, to put the political skids under him. Then that threat of the "bosses," which had reference only to the leader of the local Republican organization, was such a weak and ridiculous a bluff that it made all smile. Equally as silly was his discussion of "leadership" and threat to unhorse Herman Finkle and Alex. Bernstein, leaders in ward 12, saying that: "Some day a 'Negro' is going to 'call' for them." When he calls, if he ever does, he sure will have to be other than a "Blossom Triplet." Our people of this community have had quite enough of them, particularly the "bobblegush," Bundy. Finkle and Bernstein have done and are doing for our people of ward 12, and the entire city, ten times more than the three "Negro" councilmen combined. Continuing, Bundy said (at this same meeting):

"This matter wouldn't have arisen had we had the kind of leadership from the other group that would have elevated and helped my people. I was talking about the kind of leadership that comes in and leads us only to exploit."

What kind of "leadership" in our group is being furnished by "The Blossom Triplets," please? "The kind that comes in and leads us only to exploit" (using Bundy's own words, as quoted in The Plain Dealer of Aug. 8, 1930), and everybody knows it. Instead of "elevating" and "helping" our people, just see what they have done to us in recent weeks alone—to say nothing of since the first of the year. May the good Lord deliver us from such leadership just as soon as possible and in any way he sees fit to. We surely do not want any more such "Negro leadership" as has been furnished us by "The Blossom Triplets." In concluding his speech, Bundy said:

"It has been said that I am slated for execution."

AGREED! That's true! The people of the third councilmanic district have done the slating and will see to it that the political execution of the "bobblegush" and the other two "Blossom Triplets" will take place promptly, next year in the fall time. He also said:

"I asked my colleagues to stand by me in support of one candidate, and I was led to believe that all three of us were for Arthur Day. It was my impression that we had agreed. Then one day a conference was called. The other two decided to go another way, but I stood where I was."

Yes, George and Payne "did agree" to leave the Day candidacy and "go another way," to the Harris candidacy with the local Republican organization which decided overwhelmingly to do that very thing. And they were wise in so doing. It has already netted them membership in the local Republican executive committee, at the local County Republican convention where Bundy was most decidedly "out of luck."

At this St. James church meeting State Senator Geo. H. Bender urged our people to "free themselves from the political yoke" which he said "had meant bondage for other independent groups in other parts of Cuyahoga county." Well, now, that's just too bad, isn't it? Wonder what influence that, and other like statements from the same source, will have on the senator's candidacy for Congress? Will it help or hurt his Democratic opponent, Congressman Robert Crosser, who is seeking reelection for the third or fourth time?

Councilman George also spoke at this meeting, and tho "the audience was hostile, George stood his ground and made them like it," and demanded to know "what in the name of God had the fitness of Maurice Maschke, to be the head of the Republican organization, to do with the question of whether Day or Harris should be nominated?" He asked this question of the "hostile audience" and the erratic "bobblegush," Bundy. No one answered.

OPPOSE MARTIN'S CANDIDACY.

The editor of The Gazette acknowledges the receipt, Tuesday, of a letter, under date, Aug. 15, '30, from Wm. R. Conners, requesting him to attend the meeting held in the Western Reserve Republican club rooms, Wednesday evening, in the interest of Atty. Alex. H. Martin's candidacy for judge of the Common Pleas court. We did not attend the meeting because we are opposed to the Martin candidacy for the following reason:

Several months ago Mr. Emmett Meade, E. 130th St., this city, one of our leading and most loyal business men, introduced a resolution in the East End Republican club committing that organization to the ousting of "Color-Line City-Hospital" Welfare Director Dudley S. Blossom, which Alexander H. Martin opposed and "talked to death," showing such interest in Blossom's candidacy at that time, for reappointment to the office of welfare director, as to amount to disloyalty to at least those of the race in this community. Martin's most reprehensible course in that matter so shocked other loyal members of the race in attendance upon the meeting, and Mr. Meade, as to cause him to withhold another resolution he had, providing for the endorsement of the Martin candidacy.

All of our many readers will readily recall the fact, stated so often in these columns since the first of the year, that it was this same man Blossom, who for quite five years denied our boys and girls only the right to train in the City hospital, and is still doing so, contrary to custom, law and about everything else fair and just. For quite five years, Welfare Director Blossom has thus held up our people to ridicule before the eyes of the entire community. Alexander Martin knew and knows this, and still has the temerity to ask our people for their votes to help him be elected a judge of our Common Pleas court! What sort of a judge, if elected, would such a "Negro" make? How far could we trust him in any matter that paralleled "The Blossom-City Hospital Color-Line" matter? Prior to the East End Republican club meeting — Martin — Blossom "episode," The Gazette's editor had promised to support the Martin candidacy, but promptly and publically withdrew that promise immediately after Martin's opposition to and killing of the Meade anti-Blossom reappointment resolution. By that disloyal act, Martin placed himself squarely alongside "The Blossom Triplets" who, after many weeks' pledging themselves and promising "to do everything in their power to help oust Blossom," wound up by "waiving" their opposition to that individual and thus paving the way for his reappointment which followed. Such disloyalty cannot be glossed over or overlooked! But every one of the guilty individuals must be held strictly to account by the loyal of the race in this community, if we are ever to make anything like the progress we are still struggling so hard for. After next year, we want no Bundys, Paynes or Georges in office to misrepresent us. And Martin has proven himself to be one of that kind. So we do not want him! Those we have cannot be gotten rid of until next year in the fall-time. But it will be done then just so surely as there is a Lord in heaven. Martin, the original chairman of the Blossom-Gregg "jim-crow" hospital committee of two years ago, has no more chance to be elected a common pleas judge in November than Councilman George, Payne or Bundy have to be re-elected to the city council in November of next year. Cut out and paste in your hat the preceding sentence for future reference. It is the TRUTH!
